

MIT LINCOLN LABORATORY
RESUME CONSENT FORM

(March 2008*)

By execution of Block 2 of this consent form, the undersigned hereby authorizes the company identified in Block 1 to submit his/her resume in response to an MIT Lincoln Laboratory solicitation for subcontract personnel. This exclusive authorization shall be valid for the lesser of either forty-five (45) days or until the candidate has been assigned to the Laboratory by the company identified in Block 1. This agreement may optionally be extended in additional 45-day increments upon written agreement between the company identified below and the undersigned candidate. The completed form shall be valid for all solicitations from groups within MIT Lincoln Laboratory while valid. Execution of this form in no way obligates MIT Lincoln Laboratory to either fill this subcontract position or to include the undersigned in the hiring process if the position were to be filled.

Additionally, by completion of this form, both the company and the candidate acknowledge that multiple submittals of an individual candidate's resume from different subcontract labor Service Companies may result in the disqualification of the candidate. The company identified below must thoroughly brief the individual candidate regarding this MIT Lincoln Laboratory solicitation provision and the potential ramifications of multiple submittals as described above.
